Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

The Board of Directors
UDR, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying statement of revenues and certain expenses (the Statement) of Edgewater Apartments (the Community) for the year ended December 31, 2007. This statement is the responsibility of the management of the Community. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this statement based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the statement is free of material misstatement. We were not engaged to perform an audit of the Community's internal control over financial reporting. Our audit included consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Community's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the statement, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, and evaluating the overall statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

The accompanying Statement was prepared for the purpose of complying with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission for inclusion in a Current Report on Form 8-K of UDR, Inc., as described in Note 1, and is not intended to be a complete presentation of the Community's revenues and expenses.

In our opinion, the Statement referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the revenues and certain expenses, as described in Note 1, of Edgewater Apartments for the year ended December 31, 2007, in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

1. Basis of Presentation

On March 28, 2008, UDR, Inc. entered into an agreement to purchase Edgewater Apartments (the Community), a residential apartment community in San Francisco, California, from United Housing Mission Bay I, LLC.

The statement of revenues and certain expenses relates to the operations of the Community and were prepared for the purpose of complying with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission, including Rule 3-14 of Regulation S-X. Accordingly, the accompanying statement of revenues and certain expenses has been prepared using the accrual method of accounting, and certain expenses such as depreciation, amortization, income taxes, mortgage interest expense, and entity expenses are not reflected in the statement of revenues and certain expenses, as required by Rule 3-14 of Regulation S-X of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Consequently, the statement of revenues and certain expenses for the period presented is not representative of the actual operations for the period presented, as certain revenues and expenses which may not be in the proposed future operations of the Community have been excluded in accordance with Rule 3-14 of Regulation S-X.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Revenue Recognition

The apartment homes are leased under operating leases with terms of generally one year or less. Rental income is recognized as it is earned, which is not materially different than on a straight-line basis.

Repairs and Maintenance

Repairs and maintenance costs are expensed as incurred, while significant improvements, renovations, and replacements are capitalized.

Advertising Costs

All advertising costs are expensed as incurred and reported on the statement of revenues and certain expenses within the line item Administrative and marketing. For the year ended December 31, 2007, advertising expenses were $43,824.

Uses of Estimates

The preparation of the statement of revenues and certain expenses in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management of the Community to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Table of Contents

3. Development of the Property

The Community was under development for a portion of 2007. In August 2007, the development was completed and the Community commenced rental operations.

4. Related-Party Transactions

Affiliates of the Community performed the property management function and charged total management fees of 2% of gross receipts for 2007. Gross receipts are defined as total cash receipts from tenants. Management fees in the amount of $41,173 were charged to the Community during 2007.

3. Development of the Property

The Community has been under development since September 2004 and consists of three buildings. The first building was completed and ready for occupancy in August 2006. The second building was completed and ready for occupancy in October 2006. In August 2007, the third and final building was completed and the Community had received Certificates of Occupancy for 100% of its units for the three buildings.

4. Related-Party Transactions

Affiliates of the Community performed the property management function and charged total management fees of 3.5% of gross rental receipts for this service for 2007. Management fees in the amount of $64,749 were charged to the Community during 2007. In addition, a one-time leasing fee is paid to affiliates of the Community in the amount of $350 per unit leased. Leasing fees in the amount of $36,750 were charged to the Community during 2007.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Revenue Recognition

The apartment homes are leased under operating leases with terms of generally one year or less. Rental income is recognized as it is earned, which is not materially different than on a straight-line basis.

The Community leases space to commercial tenants under noncancelable operating lease agreements. As such, the Community recognizes lease revenue in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 13, Accounting for Leases, as amended, which requires that lease revenue be recognized on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease.

Repairs and Maintenance

Repairs and maintenance costs are expensed as incurred, while significant improvements, renovations, and replacements are capitalized.

Advertising Costs

All advertising costs are expensed as incurred and reported on the statement of revenues and certain expenses within the line item Administrative and marketing. For the year ended December 31, 2007, advertising expenses were $188,357, which included $51,826 in rental bonuses.

PRO FORMA FINANCIAL INFORMATION
(unaudited)

The accompanying unaudited pro forma consolidated balance sheet presents the historical financial information of UDR as of March 31, 2008, for acquisitions occurring between March 28, 2008 and March 31, 2008 as adjusted for the asset acquisitions for approximately $456.9 million, of which approximately $71.0 was financed with debt with the balance remitted utilizing 1031 proceeds for Edgewater Apartments, Delancey Apartments at Shirlington Village, Circle Towers and Legacy Village I, II, III and IV as if the transactions had occurred on March 31, 2008. As the asset acquisitions in all cases had occurred prior to close of business on March 31, 2008 and are therefore included in our historical information, there are no pro forma adjustments deemed necessary to the pro forma consolidated balance sheet.

The accompanying unaudited pro forma consolidated statement of operations for the year ended December 31, 2007 and the three months ended March 31, 2008 (unaudited) combines the historical operations of UDR with the historical operations of the assets acquired as if the acquisitions had occurred on January 1, 2007.

The unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements have been prepared by UDR's management based upon the historical financial statements of UDR and the historical financial information of the individual communities acquired. Certain pro forma adjustments were made to the historical financial statements as described in the accompanying notes to pro forma consolidated financial statements. These pro forma financial statements may not be indicative of the results that actually would have occurred if the combination had been in effect on the dates indicated. The pro forma financial statements and notes thereto should be read in conjunction with the historical financial statements included in UDR's previous filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

- (a) Reflects differences between historical real estate taxes and estimated real estate taxes that would have been recorded by UDR due to revaluation of the communities by the local taxing authority. Also reflects differences between historical insurance and estimated insurance expense that would have been recorded by UDR based on UDR's insurance rates applied on a per unit basis.
- (b) Reflects difference between historical property management fee and the estimated property management fee that would have been recorded by UDR based on the Company's standard management fee.
- (c) Reflects difference between historical real estate depreciation and amortization as it pertains to Section 210.3-14 of Regulation S-X and the estimated depreciation and amortization that would have been recorded by UDR based on the depreciable basis of the acquired communities, assuming asset lives ranging from five to thirty-five years as well as the amortization of the identifiable intangible values recorded with an estimated 11 month useful life.
- (d) Reflects difference between historical interest expense as it pertains to Section 210.3-14 of Regulation S-X and estimated interest expense that would have been recorded for the assumed debt, including the impact of amortizing the fair market adjustment on fixed rate debt over the term of the related debt instrument.
- (e) Reflects difference between historical minority interest and what would have been recorded by the Company as a result of the reported earnings for the acquired communities.
