Under the Credit Agreement, RGA may borrow and may obtain letters of credit for general corporate purposes for its own account or the account of the other Loan Parties, in United States Dollars, Euros, British Sterling, Japanese Yen, or Canadian Dollars with an overall credit facility amount of up to $750.0 million.

The Credit Agreement replaced the Credit Agreement, dated as of September 29, 2005, among RGA and a bank syndicate (the Former Credit Agreement), which was scheduled to expire on September 29, 2010 and provided RGA the ability to borrow up to $300.0 million, and certain of the Loan Parties the ability to obtain letters of credit, with an overall credit facility amount of up to $600.0 million. On September 24, 2007, RGA had no borrowings outstanding under the Former Credit Agreement and approximately $140 million of letters of credit issued under the Former Credit Agreement, and those letters of credit were replaced with letters of credit issued under the Credit Agreement. As of the date of this filing, no early termination penalties have been incurred by RGA in connection with the termination of the Former Credit Agreement. A description of the material terms and conditions of the Former Credit Agreement is contained in Note 14 Debt and Trust Preferred Securities to RGA's consolidated financial statements as of and for the year ended December 31, 2006 included in RGA's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006.

RGA may borrow, repay and reborrow amounts under the Credit Facility from time to time until the expiration of the Credit Facility on September 24, 2012, on which date all of the outstanding principal and accrued and unpaid interest will become due. The Credit Facility may be increased, at RGA's election, to provide for up to an additional $100.0 million of borrowings and letters of credit under the terms set forth in the Credit Agreement. Voluntary prepayments and commitment reduction under the Credit Facility are permitted at any time without fee upon proper notice and subject to a minimum dollar requirement.

The interest rate on each loan made under the Credit Agreement will be an applicable margin, as determined in accordance with a pricing grid plus (i) the LIBOR rate, or (ii) the base rate, which is the higher of (a) the prime rate as announced by Bank of America and (b) the Federal Funds Rate plus 0.5%. RGA may select interest periods of one, two, three or six months for LIBOR rate loans, subject to availability. LIBOR rate loans will be available on three business days' notice, and alternative base rate loans will be available on the date requested. Longer notice periods apply for loans denominated in currencies other than United States Dollars. Interest will be payable at least quarterly, and at the end of each interest period. RGA will also pay (i) a facility fee at a rate that varies with RGA's long-term debt ratings and that is calculated on the aggregate amount of the commitments under the Credit Facility, (ii) during any period in which more than 50% of the commitments are borrowed, a utilization fee on the outstanding amount, (iii) letter of credit fees calculated on the aggregate amount of undrawn letters of credit and (iv) certain other fees incurred by the Lenders. During an event of default, interest accrues at a rate equal to two percent above the interest rates otherwise applicable to each loan outstanding under the Credit Agreement at that time.

The Credit Agreement is unsecured but contains affirmative, negative and financial covenants customary for financings of this type, including restrictions related to, among other things, indebtedness, guarantees, liens, asset dispositions, merger or consolidation, the issuance and disposition of stock of certain subsidiaries, maximum consolidated indebtedness and minimum capitalization. The Credit Agreement includes customary events of default for facilities of this type (with customary grace periods, as applicable), including, among other things the non-payment of principal, interest and fees, breaches of covenants, inaccuracies of representations and warranties, bankruptcy and insolvency events and material judgments. An event of default would permit the Lenders to require immediate payment of all amounts due under the Credit Agreement, including principal and accrued interest, terminate their commitments and enforce any and all rights, subject to cure provisions, where applicable. Additionally, the Credit Agreement contains cross-acceleration provisions, which would make outstanding borrowings under the Credit Agreement immediately payable in the event of non-payment of other material indebtedness when demanded, and any other event which results in the acceleration of the maturity of material indebtedness.

The Credit Agreement also provides that upon the occurrence of a change of control (as defined in the Credit Agreement), (i) one or more Lenders may withdraw from the Credit Facility, and (ii) if agreed upon by a majority of the Lenders under certain circumstances dependent on the credit rating of a new person taking control, all of the Lenders may elect to either not make additional credit advances (loans or the issuance of additional letters of credit) or to require termination of the Credit Facility and prepayment of all outstanding amounts owing thereunder.

Some of the Lenders under the Credit Agreement and/or their affiliates have or may have had various relationships with RGA and its subsidiaries involving the provision of a variety of financial services, including investment banking, underwriting, commercial banking, letters of credit, for which the Lenders and/or affiliates receive customary fees and, in some cases, out-of-pocket expenses.

The foregoing description is only a summary and is qualified in its entirety by the Credit Agreement. Since the terms of the Credit Agreement may differ from the general information contained herein, you should only rely on the actual terms of the Credit Agreement, which is filed with this report as Exhibit 10.1 and is incorporated by reference herein.
