CHICAGO RIVET & MACHINE CO.
 NOTES TO THE CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
 (Unaudited)

1. In the opinion of the Company, the accompanying unaudited interim financial statements contain all adjustments necessary to present fairly the financial position of the Company as of September 30, 2008 (unaudited) and December 31, 2007 (audited) and the results of operations and changes in cash flows for the indicated periods. The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Certain items in 2007 have been reclassified to conform to the presentation in 2008. These changes have no effect on the results of operations or the financial position of the Company.
2. The results of operations for the three and nine-month period ending September 30, 2008 are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the year.
3. The Company extends credit on the basis of terms that are customary within our markets to various companies doing business primarily in the automotive industry. The Company has a concentration of credit risk primarily within the automotive industry and in the Midwestern United States.
4. The Company is, from time to time, involved in litigation, including environmental claims and contract disputes, in the normal course of business. While it is not possible at this time to establish the ultimate amount of liability with respect to contingent liabilities, including those related to legal proceedings, management is of the opinion that the aggregate amount of any such liabilities, for which provision has not been made, will not have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial position.
5. The Company's federal income tax returns for the 2005, 2006 and 2007 tax years are subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service ( IRS ). While it may be possible that a reduction could occur with respect to the Company's unrecognized tax benefits as an outcome of an IRS examination, management does not anticipate any adjustments that would result in a material change to the results of operations or financial condition of the Company. The 2004 federal income tax return was examined by the IRS and no adjustments were made as a result of the examination. No statutes have been extended on any of the Company's federal income tax filings. The statute of limitations on the Company's 2005, 2006 and 2007 federal income tax returns will expire on September 15, 2009, 2010 and 2011, respectively.
- The Company's state income tax returns for the 2005 through 2007 tax years remain subject to examination by various state authorities with the latest closing period on October 31, 2011. The Company is currently not under examination by any state authority for income tax purposes and no statutes for state income tax filings have been extended.
6. Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or net realizable value, cost being determined by the first-in, first-out method. A summary of inventories is as follows:

	September 30, 2008	December 31, 2007
Raw material	$ 1,738,455	$ 1,275,595

CHICAGO RIVET &amp; MACHINE CO.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations.

Results for the third quarter of 2008, as well as the current year to date, continued to be negatively impacted by the decline in domestic automotive production compared to the year earlier periods, as well as worsening overall economic conditions. Net revenues in the third quarter of 2008 were $6,662,021, a decline of 26.3% compared to 2007, when revenues were $9,043,603. Year to date revenues total $23,123,359, a decline of 20.6% compared to the $29,121,499 recorded for the first three quarters of 2007. Although we have reduced expenses, cost reductions were not sufficient to offset the effects of the decline in sales. The net result was a net loss of $195,409, or $0.20 per share, in the third quarter of 2008 compared to net income of $372,101, or $0.39 per share, in 2007. The year to date net loss is $187,158, or $0.19 per share, compared to net income of $1,205,772, or $1.25 per share, for 2007.

Within the fastener segment, third quarter revenues declined by $2,175,478, or 27.5%, from $7,905,111 in 2007, to $5,729,633 in 2008. On a year to date basis, 2008 fastener segment revenues have declined by $5,395,947, or 21.2%, from $25,491,263 in 2007 to $20,095,316 in 2008. Demand among automotive sector customers, which has been down since late last year due to slumping U.S. auto sales, weakened further during the quarter as U.S. auto sales near a two-decade low. The spreading economic crisis further negatively impacted most other markets we serve. Along with the drop in demand, we have seen a dramatic increase in the cost of certain items we purchase, most notably steel and natural gas. While the price of steel has risen dramatically this year, our overall raw material costs are down due to the reduction in production activity. The increase in material prices results in raw materials accounting for a larger percentage of cost of sales compared to last year. In addition to natural gas, which increased by $14,000 during the third quarter and $49,000 year to date, the only significant increase in overhead during 2008 was tooling expense, which increased $65,000 through three quarters of 2008, down from $105,000 for the first half of the year, as certain design work was performed in an attempt to improve production efficiency. The closing of the Jefferson, Iowa plant in 2007 has resulted in approximately $106,000 in overhead cost reductions during 2008 compared to 2007. The net result of these factors was a $927,000 reduction in fastener segment gross margin during the third quarter and a $2,237,000 reduction in the year to date amount.

Assembly equipment segment revenues totaled $932,388 in the third quarter of 2008, a decline of $206,104, or 18.1%, compared to the third quarter of 2007, when revenues were $1,138,492. Demand for our products in this segment continues to be weak and the lower level of production activity, brought on by reduced demand, resulted in a $41,000 decline in gross margin compared to the third quarter of 2007. For the first nine months of 2008, revenues in this segment amounted to $3,028,043, a $602,193 decline, or 16.6%, compared to the first nine months of 2007 when net revenues totaled $3,630,236. In response to the lower level of sales activity in 2008, we have implemented steps to reduce and control expenses, including reductions in both staffing levels and work schedules. The cumulative effect of these actions, however, has not been sufficient to fully offset the effects of reduced volume and, as a result, gross margins declined to $917,000 from $1,186,000 last year.

Selling and administrative expenses for the third quarter of 2008 were $122,766 lower than during the third quarter of 2007. The lower sales in the quarter resulted in a $43,000 reduction in commission expense. Profit sharing expense declined $29,000 in the third quarter compared with last year due to the reduction in earnings, while office supplies and sales promotion expenses were reduced $15,000 and $11,000, respectively. Lastly, salaries and related benefits account for approximately $10,000 of the net decline due to reduced headcount. The remaining net decrease in the quarter relates to various items with smaller changes. On a year to date basis, selling and administrative expenses have declined $377,558 in 2008 compared with the first nine months of 2007. The largest components of the year to date decline are sales commissions, profit sharing and salaries and related benefits, which have declined by $134,000, $115,000 and $104,000, respectively for the reasons stated above.

Working capital at September 30, 2008 was approximately $16 million, a reduction of $.5 million from the beginning of the year. While accounts receivable have declined $.8 million since the beginning of the year, primarily due to the lower sales in the third quarter of 2008 compared to the fourth quarter of last year, inventories have increased $.6 million, due to higher raw material prices compared to last year as well as larger quantities of raw material on hand due to reduced customer demand. The net result of these changes and other cash flow items on cash, cash equivalents and certificates of deposit was a decrease of $.2 million, to $7.4 million, as of September 30, 2008.

The Company has a $1.0 million line of credit, which expires May 31, 2009. This line of credit remains unused. Management believes that current cash, cash equivalents, operating cash flow and the available line of credit will provide adequate working capital for the foreseeable future.

Table of Contents

The decline in revenues in the third quarter and year to date reflects the continued drop in production activity in our primary markets. The fastener segment, which is primarily dependent on sales to companies in the automotive industry, has experienced five straight quarters of declining sales. What began late last year as weakness in the automotive market has now spread to other markets due to the weak economy. The assembly equipment segment, while not as reliant on the automotive sector for revenues, has been hurt by the overall decline in domestic manufacturing activity. Predicting future demand in our markets is difficult and that uncertainty will keep us cautious in the near-term. In response to these challenging market conditions, we will continue to make adjustments to our activities where possible without sacrificing the unsurpassed quality and excellent customer service that is the basis for our success.

This discussion contains certain forward-looking statements which are inherently subject to risks and uncertainties that may cause actual events to differ materially from those discussed herein. Factors which may cause such differences in events include, those disclosed under Risk Factors in our Annual Report on Form 10-K and in the other filings we make with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission. These factors, include among other things: conditions in the domestic automotive industry, upon which we rely for sales revenue, the intense competition in our markets, the concentration of our sales to two major customers, the price and availability of raw materials, labor relations issues, losses related to product liability, warranty and recall claims, costs relating to environmental laws and regulations, the loss of the services of our key employees and difficulties in achieving expected cost savings. Many of these factors are beyond our ability to control or predict. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements. We undertake no obligation to publish revised forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances after the date hereof or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures.

(a) Disclosure Controls and Procedures. The Company's management, with the participation of the Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, has evaluated the effectiveness of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures (as such term is defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act)) as of the end of the period covered by this report. Based on such evaluation, the Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer have concluded that, as of the end of such period, the Company's disclosure controls and procedures are effective in recording, processing, summarizing and reporting, on a timely basis, information required to be disclosed by the Company in the reports that it files or submits under the Exchange Act.

(b) Internal Control Over Financial Reporting. There have not been any changes in the Company's internal control over financial reporting (as such term is defined in Rules 13a-15(f) and 15d-15(f) under the Exchange Act) during the fiscal quarter to which this report relates that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal control over financial reporting.
