Employment Agreement with Jack Lewis

In connection with the appointment of Jack Lewis as Chief Executive Officer and President of Kirklands, Inc. (the Company), on May 16, 2005, we entered into an Employment Agreement (the Agreement), effective as of May 31, 2005 with Mr. Lewis, which provides for an annual base salary of $375,000. The Agreement provides that Mr. Lewis's target annual bonus opportunity will be $375,000, with $250,000 of such annual bonus guaranteed in his first year of employment. The Agreement provides for the following option grants to be made to Mr. Lewis: (i) the grant of an option upon commencement of his employment to purchase 200,000 shares of the Company's common stock, and (ii) the grant of an option in 2006 to purchase 100,000 shares of the Company's common stock. Both options will vest over four years (based on Mr. Lewis's continued employment with the Company following the applicable grant date) and will have an exercise price equal to the fair market value of the Company's common stock on the applicable grant date.

The Agreement further provides that if Mr. Lewis's employment is terminated without cause or if he resigns for good reason (as defined in the Agreement), he will be entitled to severance benefits consisting of the continuation of his health insurance benefit for a period of one year and an amount equal to his average annual cash compensation for the prior three years, payable over a period of one year. The foregoing severance rights are conditioned on Mr. Lewis's execution of a release of claims against the Company and its affiliates.

The Agreement provides that Mr. Lewis will be restricted by confidentiality, non-competition and non-solicitation covenants. The confidentiality covenants survive the termination of the Agreement or Mr. Lewis's employment by the Company. The non-competition and non-solicitation covenants continue for the duration of Mr. Lewis's employment by the Company and for a period of one year after the end of the term of the Agreement. The Agreement further provides that the Company may extend the foregoing restriction period for up to two additional years. If the Company exercises its right to extend the restriction period, then, for the duration of that extension, Mr. Lewis will receive severance payments (in addition to any severance payments described in the preceding paragraph) at an annual rate equal to his average annual cash compensation for the three final years of his employment, offset by any compensation that he earns for services performed for a third party during that extension period. Again, these additional payments are conditioned on Mr. Lewis's execution of a release of claims against the Company and its affiliates.
