Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(e) On August 30, 2007, Cousins Properties Incorporated (the Company) began entering into Change in Control Severance Agreements (the Severance Agreements) with each of its named executive officers. The Severance Agreements provide for certain payments and other benefits if, following a change in control, the Company terminates the executive's employment without cause or the executive terminates his employment for good reason. The payments include a cash payment determined by multiplying the sum of the executive's annual base salary plus his average bonus, as defined, by a designated factor, payable in equal monthly installments over the number of years equal to the designated factor. For the chief executive officer, the factor is 2.99; for the other named executive officers, the factor is 2.0. The benefits include continuation of health care coverage for two years. The Severance Agreements also provide that payments and benefits will be supplemented by an additional payment to gross up the executives for certain excise taxes, and for any tax imposed on such gross-up payment, subject to certain requirements.

The Company's obligations are conditioned upon the execution of a protective covenant agreement and waiver and general release by the executive. The protective covenant agreement includes: (1) a two-year confidentiality provision; (2) a non-competition provision for the number of years equal to the designated factor for the named executive officer; (3) a two-year non-solicitation provision; and (4) a two-year non-recruitment provision.

The Severance Agreements terminate on the earlier of two years after a change in control or if the Company terminates the executive's employment for any reason that does not trigger the payments or benefits under the agreement.

The form of Severance Agreement is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this report.
