PART III NARRATIVE

STATE BELOW IN REASONABLE DETAIL THE REASONS WHY FORM 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, OR THE TRANSITION REPORT PORTION THEREOF, COULD NOT BE FILED WITHIN THE PRESCRIBED TIME PERIOD. (ATTACH EXTRA SHEETS IF NEEDED.)

The Company was not in compliance with certain provisions in its senior debt agreements, and entered into extension agreements with the senior lenders effective as of January 31, 2004, which provided for the continued forbearance by the Senior Lenders through March 31, 2004, with respect to foreclosure under the senior debt, conditioned upon the continued progress of the Company in the implementation of the proposed refinancing transaction provided for in the Securities Purchase Agreement attached as an exhibit to the previously filed Form 8-K of the Company dated December 22, 2003.

In order for the Company to complete its refinancing transaction, it must receive approval from its shareholders. The Company filed its preliminary proxy statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") on December 22, 2003, and was informed by the SEC Staff that the proxy statement would be given a full review, as would the Company's Form 10-K filing for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2003, and the Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2003, which were to be transmitted to shareholders along with the definitive proxy statement.

In response to subsequent SEC comments, the Company made certain modifications to the preliminary proxy statement and prepared amendments to the Form 10-K and Form 10-Q. The Company has devoted its management and other resources to the task of developing appropriate revisions, as identified by the SEC, to the foregoing filings in order that the definitive proxy statement may be timely printed and mailed to the Company's shareholders to enable shareholder approval of the transactions within the time limitations imposed on the Company by the forbearance agreements. As a result of the foregoing process, the Company filed its definitive proxy statement with the SEC on February 17, 2004.

As a consequence of these activities and events, the Company was unable to finalize its Form 10-Q for the quarter ended December 31, 2003 prior to the due date for the Form 10-Q without unreasonable effort or expense. The Company anticipates completing its financial statements and other disclosures to be set forth in the subject Form 10-Q within the five calendar day extension period permitted by Rule 12b-25 and filing the Form 10-Q within that timeframe.

Revenues from continuing operations for the fiscal 2004 third quarter totaled $32.9 million compared to $31.8 million in the fiscal 2003 third quarter, an increase of $1.1 million, or 3.5%. Revenues from the discontinued operations were $2.8 million in the fiscal 2004 third quarter compared to $6.8 million in the prior-year period. The decrease in discontinued operations is primarily attributable to the sale of three non-strategic business units.

Operating income from continuing operations totaled $2.8 million in the third quarter of fiscal 2004 compared to $2.6 million for the fiscal 2003 third quarter, an increase of $0.2 million. The increase in operating income in the fiscal 2004 third quarter resulted from improved revenue levels and lower operating expenses.

Income from continuing operations for the fiscal 2004 third quarter was $0.6 million compared to $0.4 million in the third quarter of fiscal 2003, an increase of $0.2 million. The fiscal 2004 third quarter increase in operating income is the result of improved revenue levels, improved operating efficiencies and our overall efforts to streamline operations.

Revenues from discontinued operations were $8.9 million for the first nine months of fiscal 2004 compared to $20.6 million in the prior-year period, a decrease of $11.7 million. related to the prior-years restructuring costs incurred and improved revenues generated during the current fiscal year.

Income from continuing operations totaled $3.3 million for the nine months ended December 31, 2003 compared to a loss of $1.3 million of income from continuing operations in the prior-year period, an increase in earnings of $4.6 million. The fiscal 2004 nine months operating income is the result of improved revenue levels, improved operating efficiencies and our overall efforts to streamline operations.

Net loss totaled $0.6 million for the nine months ended December 31, 2003 compared to $23.6 million in the prior-year period, an improvement of $23.0 million, which was primarily attributable to non-cash goodwill impairment charges as a result of a change in accounting principle in the prior-year, improved revenue levels, improved operating efficiencies and our overall efforts to streamline operations. Loss per share on a diluted basis totaled $0.06 per share compared to $2.81 per share in the prior-year period.

The Company does not anticipate any changes to the results of operations described above.
