SCHEDULE 13D

This Amendment No. 3 amends Items 2, 3, 4, 5 and 7 of the Schedule 13D filed by Merchants Mutual Insurance Company dated March 31, 1998 as amended by Amendment No. 1 dated June 16, 1998 and Amendment No. 2 dated August 17, 1998 (collectively, the Schedule 13D). All other information included in the Schedule 13D is substantially unchanged.

ITEM 1. SECURITY AND ISSUER

This Statement, as amended, relates to the shares of Common Stock, $.01 par value per share (Shares), of Merchants Group, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Issuer). The address of the Issuer s principal executive offices is 250 Main Street, Buffalo, New York 14202.

ITEM 2. IDENTITY AND BACKGROUND

This Statement, as amended, is filed on behalf of Merchants Mutual Insurance Company, a New York domiciled mutual property and casualty insurance company (Mutual). The address of Mutual s principal office is 250 Main Street, Buffalo, New York 14202.

Item 2 information with respect to the Directors and executive officers of Mutual is contained in Attachment A hereto, which is incorporated herein by this reference. Mutual and its executive officers and Directors are sometimes hereinafter collectively referred to as the Reporting Persons.

As previously reported, Mutual acquired its Shares of the Issuer prior to November 1986. In November 1986 the Issuer completed its initial public offering. Mutual filed a Schedule 13G with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) on February 13, 1987, reporting its ownership of 1,155,000 Shares of Issuer, which represented 57.6% of Issuer s issued and outstanding Shares as of December 31, 1986. As a result of the sale by Mutual of 900,000 Shares and the sale by the Issuer of an additional 950,000 Shares in a public offering in July 1993 which was registered with the SEC, Mutual filed Amendment No. 1 to its Schedule 13G with the SEC on July 6, 1993, reporting its reduced ownership of 255,000 Shares of Issuer, which represented 8.4% of Issuer s issued and outstanding Shares at that time. Mutual has not acquired or disposed of any Shares since the filing of Amendment No. 1 to its Schedule 13G on July 6, 1993. At present, Mutual owns approximately 11.9% of the Shares of the Issuer.

Mutual filed a Schedule 13D with the SEC on March 31, 1998, reporting that Mutual was considering whether it would be in its best interest to purchase all or substantially all of the stock of the Issuer or its wholly-owned subsidiary, Merchants Insurance Company of New Hampshire, Inc. (MNH).

In addition to updating the information regarding Mutual s directors and executive officers contained in this Item 2, Mutual is filing this Amendment No. 3 to its Schedule 13D to update the information contained in Item 4 relating to the purpose for which it holds the Shares (see Item 4. Purpose of Transaction) and in Item 5 relating to the ownership of Shares by certain directors and officers of Mutual (see Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer).

During the last five years, none of the Reporting Persons has (i) been convicted in a criminal proceeding (excluding traffic violations or similar misdemeanors) or (ii) been a party to a civil proceeding of a judicial or administrative body of competent jurisdiction and as a result of such proceeding was or is subject to a judgment, decree or final order enjoining future violations of, or prohibiting or mandating activities subject to, federal or state securities laws or finding any violation with respect to such laws. Each of the individual Reporting Persons is a citizen of the United States, except for Kurt Wiedenhaupt who is a German citizen.

NOTE: Nothing in this Statement, as amended, shall be construed as a statement or admission that the Reporting Persons, or any of them, (i) are acting as a group in the acquisition, disposition or holding of Shares, (ii) collectively constitute a person within the meaning of Section 13(d)(3) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Act), or (iii) for the purposes of Section 13(d) of the Act, are the beneficial owners of any Shares other than those Shares in which each person is specifically identified in this Statement to have a beneficial ownership.

ITEM 3. SOURCE AND AMOUNT OF FUNDS OR OTHER CONSIDERATION

Reference is made to Item 5 in the original Schedule 13D filed on March 31, 1998, and to Item 5 below in this Statement.

ITEM 4. PURPOSE OF TRANSACTION

Mutual has recently concluded that it would be willing to explore an all cash acquisition of the Issuer, and has submitted a letter to the Issuer's Chairman proposing such an acquisition. The details of that letter are discussed below, following a discussion of the relationship that Mutual has with the Issuer and MNH.

As was disclosed in Mutual's earlier Schedule 13D filings, Mutual has had a long standing relationship and ownership interest in the Issuer and MNH. Prior to November 1986, MNH was a wholly-owned subsidiary of Mutual. At that time, as part of the Issuer's formation and subsequent initial public offering, Mutual transferred all of the shares of MNH to the Issuer. Following the Issuer's initial public offering in November 1986, until a secondary stock offering by the Issuer in July 1993, the Issuer was a majority-owned subsidiary of Mutual. Mutual currently owns approximately 11.9% of the Issuer's outstanding Shares. Under a Services Agreement dated as of January 1, 2003 (Services Agreement), Mutual provides the Issuer and MNH with facilities and personnel to operate their traditional insurance business (Traditional Insurance Business). Currently, the officers of the Issuer and MNH are individuals who are full time paid employees of Mutual whose services are provided to the Issuer and MNH by Mutual under the Services Agreement. Also, the operation of MNH's insurance business, which offers substantially the same lines of insurance as Mutual through the same independent insurance agents, creates a close business relationship among the companies. Furthermore, under New Hampshire's insurance laws and regulations, Mutual may be deemed to control (as that term is used in the New Hampshire Insurance Code) the Issuer and MNH by reason of the combination of Mutual's ownership of Shares of the Issuer and the management of the day-to-day business of the Issuer and MNH under the Services Agreement by officers who are also officers of Mutual. Another historical indicia of possible control has been the presence of one director of Mutual on the Issuer's six-person Board of Directors, a position currently held by Robert M. Zak, who in addition to being a paid employee and President and Chief Executive Officer and a Director of Mutual is also the Chief Operating Officer of the Issuer and the President of MNH as well as a Director of both the Issuer and MNH. Mr. Zak has recently advised the Issuer that he does not intend to stand for reelection to the Issuer's Board of Directors when his current term expires in 2006. Notwithstanding that Mutual may be deemed to technically control the Issuer and MNH under New Hampshire's insurance laws and regulations, Mutual disclaims any control over either the Issuer or MNH as such term is defined and/or used under the Federal securities laws or the laws of the State of Delaware, which is where the Issuer is incorporated.

Given the close relationship between the Issuer and Mutual, from time to time Directors of the Issuer and Mutual and their respective advisors have discussed possible changes in the relationship among the three. As disclosed in Amendments No. 1 and No. 2 to this Schedule 13D, Mutual had discussions with the Issuer in 1998 concerning Mutual's interest at that time in possibly acquiring the stock of the Issuer or MNH. However, as disclosed in Amendment No. 2 to this Schedule 13D, in July of 1998 the Issuer informed Mutual that the terms and conditions of the proposed offer then being contemplated by Mutual were not acceptable to the Issuer. Accordingly, Mutual then decided not to proceed with the potential offer it was considering making at that time.

At the same time in July 1998 that the Issuer indicated that Mutual's proposed offer was not acceptable, the Issuer also gave notice that it was terminating the Management Agreement that was in effect at that time pursuant to which Mutual was providing day-to-day management for the Issuer and MNH. The three companies eventually replaced the Management Agreement with the Services Agreement, and also entered into a Reinsurance Pooling Agreement pursuant to which Mutual's and MNH's Traditional Insurance Business is pooled (Pooling Agreement). Both the Services Agreement and the Pooling Agreement were effective as of January 1, 2003, and the Issuer, MNH and Mutual have been operating under those agreements since that date.

The Services Agreement contains termination provisions that vary based on the service rendered. Underwriting services, and claims services for claims occurring on or after January 1, 2003, may be terminated on one year's notice, but the termination may not be effective before January 1, 2008. Administrative services, as well as claims services for claims occurring prior to January 1, 2003, may each be terminated on six months' notice. Investment services may be terminated upon one year's notice at any time and, in fact, in June of 2005 the Issuer and MNH notified Mutual that they will terminate Mutual's investment services as of June 30, 2006. In addition, any party to the Services Agreement has the right to terminate that Agreement on 30 days' notice given within 45 days after there is a change in control of the other party, as change in control is defined in that Agreement.

The Pooling Agreement may be terminated by either Mutual or MNH at the beginning of any calendar year on or after January 1, 2008, upon not less than six months' notice. The Pooling Agreement could also be terminated by MNH effective January 1, 2007, upon six months' notice, but only if the ratio of net losses and loss adjustment expenses to earned premiums on a cumulative basis from the inception of the Pooling Agreement exceeds 76% as of the date that notice is given. Mutual estimates that the ratio was approximately 65.8% on a cumulative basis as of December 31, 2005. In addition, the Pooling Agreement could be terminated by either party upon notice if and when the Services Agreement or the underwriting or claims services provisions under the Services Agreement are terminated for any reason, including a termination based on a change in control.

In February 2005, the Issuer announced that it had retained the investment banking firm of Philo Smith Capital Corporation to help it explore strategic alternatives for its long term development. Until recently (as described below), Mutual has not been involved in that process.

At the Issuer's request, a meeting was held on January 5, 2006, between the Issuer's Chairman and advisors for the Issuer and the Chairman of Mutual's Board of Directors and Mutual's advisors, to follow up on discussions that the Issuer had with Mutual's management regarding the relationship of the Issuer and Mutual over the next two years. At that meeting the companies agreed to continue their discussions.

A second meeting of the Chairmen and their respective advisors was held on February 1, 2006. During that meeting the parties discussed various methods for valuing the Issuer's Shares in connection with a possible acquisition of the Issuer; however, no agreement was reached in that regard.

Following the meeting on February 1, 2006, Mutual consulted with its advisors and its rating agencies and subsequently determined that it was interested in exploring an acquisition of the Issuer. On March 20, 2006, the Chairman of Mutual sent a letter to the Chairman of the Issuer indicating that Mutual was interested in acquiring the Issuer and was prepared to negotiate an all cash acquisition (by way of tender offer and/or merger) for all issued and outstanding Shares of the Issuer at a price of $29.00 per share, and requested a meeting with the Issuer's Chairman and his advisors. That letter also indicated that the only conditions that Mutual could foresee to a closing are any approvals required from State Insurance Departments (which Mutual is highly confident can be obtained in a relatively short time) and assurances from A.M. Best Company and Fitch Ratings that their respective ratings of Mutual and MNH will not be reduced as a result of Mutual's acquisition of the Issuer. The letter indicates that Mutual's offer to negotiate an all cash offer will remain outstanding until the close of business on April 4, 2006; provided, however, it will consider extending that date through April 21, 2006, if the Issuer advises Mutual by April 4th that its Board of Directors requires additional time to evaluate the offer. A copy of that letter is attached to this statement.

Subject to the preceding paragraphs in this Item 4, the Reporting Persons do not have any present plans or proposals that relate to or would result in: (a) the acquisition by any person of additional securities of the Issuer, or the disposition of securities of the Issuer; (b) an extraordinary corporate transaction, such as a merger, reorganization or liquidation, involving the Issuer or any of its subsidiaries; (c) a sale or transfer of a material amount of assets of the Issuer or any of its subsidiaries; (d) any change in the present Board of Directors or management of the Issuer, including any plans or proposals to change the number or term of Directors or to fill any existing vacancies on the Board; (e) any material change in the present capitalization or dividend policy of the Issuer; (f) any other material change in the Issuer's business or corporate structure; (g) changes in the Issuer's Certificate of Incorporation, By-Laws or instruments corresponding thereto or other actions which may impede the acquisition of control of the Issuer by any person;

(h) causing a class of securities of the Issuer to be delisted from a national securities exchange; (i) a class of equity securities of the Issuer becoming eligible for termination of registration pursuant to Section 12(g)(4) of the Act; or (j) any action similar to any of those enumerated above.
