Item 4. Description of Securities.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

Not Applicable.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Limitation of Directors' Liability.

Section 402(b) of the Business Corporation Law of the State of New York (the BCL), authorizes a New York corporation in its certificate of incorporation to limit or eliminate the personal liability of its directors to the corporation and its shareholders for damages for certain breaches of duty when acting in their capacity as directors.

Section 7 of the Company's Restated Certificate of Incorporation limits the liability of its directors (in their capacity as directors but not in their capacity as Company officers) to the Company and its shareholders to the fullest extent permitted by the BCL. However, in accordance with the BCL, the Restated Certificate of Incorporation states that it does not eliminate or limit:

- (a) the liability of any director if a judgment or other final adjudication adverse to such director establishes
 - (i) that his acts or omissions were in bad faith or involved intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (ii) that such director personally gained in fact a financial profit or other advantage to which he was not legally entitled, or (iii) that such director's acts violated Section 719 of the BCL; or (b) the liability of any director for any act or omission prior to the adoption of this Restated Certificate of Incorporation.

The Certificate of Incorporation also provides that no amendment, modification or repeal of Section 7 shall adversely affect any right or protection of a director that exists at the time of such amendment, modification or repeal.

Indemnification and Insurance.

Section 722 of the BCL provides that a corporation may indemnify its current and former directors and officers under certain circumstances. The Company's Bylaws generally provide that the Company will indemnify to the fullest extent permitted by law any person who is or was a director or officer of the Company against any judgments, fines, amount paid in settlement and reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees, which may arise by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director or officer of the Company, or where, at the Company's request, such person serves or served any other corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise in any capacity. In accordance with Section 726 of the BCL, the Company also maintains insurance for the benefit of its directors and officers insuring them against certain liabilities arising out of their service in such capacities, including liabilities under the securities law.

Section 721 of the BCL provides that no such indemnification can be made if a judgment or other final adjudication adverse to such person establishes that his acts were committed in bad faith or were the result of active and deliberate dishonesty and were material to the cause of action so adjudicated, or that he personally gained in fact a financial profit or other advantage to which he was not legally entitled.

Item 7. Exemption from Registration Claimed.

Not Applicable.

Item 9. Undertakings.

A. The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:

- (1) to file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:

- (i) to include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;
 - (ii) to reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of this Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in this Registration Statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective Registration Statement; and
 - (iii) to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in this Registration Statement or any material change to such information in this Registration Statement; provided, however, that paragraphs (A)(1)(i) and A(1)(ii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the Registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement.
- (2) that, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (3) to remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

B. The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

C. Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act 1933 and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
