On September 16, 2002, the Registrant issued a press release announcing a Florida jury verdict. The text of the press release is as follows:

Mobile Mini, Inc. Reports Jury Verdict

Tempe, Arizona   September 16, 2002   Mobile Mini, Inc. (NASDAQ National Market: MINI) announced that a Hillsborough County, Florida jury on September 13, 2002 ordered Mobile Mini to pay $7.5 million in damages to Nuko Holdings I, Inc. for interference with a contract between Nuko Holdings and A-1 Trailer Rental. The case arose out of Mobile Mini s acquisition in 2000 of A-1 Trailer Rental s container storage rental business which operated in several cities in Florida. Nuko alleged that it had previously entered into a contract to acquire A-1 Trailer Rental s assets, and that Mobile Mini interfered with that agreement. The jury verdict followed an eight-day trial. Nuko Holdings had sought compensatory damages of between $7 million and $21 million. Before the trial started, the court had rejected Nuko s claims for punitive damages.

Larry Trachtenberg, Mobile Mini s Executive Vice President, stated   We are shocked and dismayed by the jury s decision. When Mobile Mini learned that the relationship between Nuko Holdings and A-1 Trailer Rental included a no-shop provision, we suspended all discussions with A-1 and resumed our discussions only after we had been assured that that contract had terminated. At this time, we are assessing our options in this matter, and will ask the trial court to set aside the jury verdict or order a new trial. If that relief is not granted, we will file an appeal. We are also contractually entitled to be indemnified by A-1 Trailer Rental in this matter, and $2.4 million of the purchase price is held in an escrow to secure a portion of that indemnity obligation.

Mobile Mini, Inc. (www.mobilemini.com) is North America s leading provider of portable storage solutions through its fleet of 84,000 portable storage units and portable offices.
