Dear Valued Customer,

As I am sure you have heard, ACS and Xerox have decided to join forces to create a new class of solutions provider with leading technology and expertise in document and business process management. We at ACS are very excited about this partnership and, as our valued customer, we want to provide you with some further information related to this announcement.

As you know, Xerox is the world's leading document management technology and services enterprise. We all recognize Xerox's name because of its successful printing and hardware business, but you may not know that its services expertise is just as strong. Xerox leads the industry in Managed Print Services and helping businesses and government develop online document archives, analyzing how employees can most efficiently share documents and knowledge in the office, operating in-house print shops or mailrooms, and building Web-based processes for personalizing direct mail, invoices, brochures and more.

How will you benefit from this partnership? Together with Xerox, ACS will be able to grow and scale in incredible ways. By leveraging Xerox's industry-leading document management, record of innovation, and R&D investments, we will be able to offer comprehensive document solutions, create new automated and differentiated business processing services and accelerate ACS' various Land Records initiatives. In short, the combination of Xerox and ACS will establish a solutions provider that surpasses every competitor and sets a new standard for document technology and business processing solutions management.

The real winner in this transaction is you, our valued client. With Xerox as a partner, we are focused on aligning technology to solve business process problems. ACS will be able to provide improved offerings by integrating a variety of systems, creating end-to-end document management solutions. In the months to come as we begin the integration process, we look forward to sharing with you some specific opportunities for your County.

We do not expect any personnel changes related to this announcement. You will continue to work with the same great GRM team you have in the past and we expect to leverage additional Xerox resources once the transition is complete. You will also not experience any disruption of service or support because of this change. In fact, through this change, we expect to become stronger and more responsive to our customers needs than we have ever been. We ask that you be as open to this opportunity as we are and welcome the positive results as they come.
