PROXY STATEMENT

Edgar Filing: HMG COURTLAND PROPERTIES INC - Form PRER14A

signed and is not revoked by the shareholder, the shares of common stock of the Company (the "Shares") represented thereby will be voted at the meeting in accordance with the instructions, if any, of the shareholder. If no instructions are given, they will be voted for the election of Directors nominated by the Board of Directors and for approval of the amendment and renewal of the advisory agreement (the "Advisory Agreement") between the Company and HMG Advisory Corp. (the "Advisor"). Any shareholder may revoke his proxy at any time before it is voted by giving written notice of revocation to the Secretary of the Company.

Holders of Shares of record at the close of business on August 16, 2002 are entitled to notice of and to vote at the meeting. On that date, there were 1,089,135 Shares outstanding. Each Share is entitled to one vote on all business of the meeting. The holders of a majority of the outstanding Shares, present in person or represented by proxy, will constitute a quorum at the meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes are counted for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for the transaction of business. Abstentions are counted in tabulations of the votes cast on proposals presented to stockholders, whereas broker non-votes are not counted for purposes of determining whether a proposal has been approved. As of August 16, 2002, Transco Realty Trust ("Transco"), 1870 South Bayshore Drive, Coconut Grove, Florida 33133, was the beneficial owner of 477,300 Shares, or 44% of the outstanding Shares, and Emanuel Metz, CIBC Oppenheimer Corp., One World Financial Center, 200 Liberty Street, New York, New York 10281, was the beneficial owner of 59,500 Shares, or 5% of the outstanding Shares. Beneficial ownership is based on sole voting and investment power.

The Company has been advised by its officers and nominees for directors, and their affiliated shareholders, Transco, Courtland Group, Inc. ("CGI") and T.G.I.F. Texas, Inc. ("T.G.I.F.") that they intend to vote for the election of each of the nominees and for the approval of the Advisory Agreement. Such shareholders own in the aggregate 634,430 shares, or 58% of the outstanding Shares. As a result, each of the nominees is expected to be elected as a Director and the Advisory Agreement is expected to be approved. As noted below, certain Directors of the Company are affiliated with principal shareholders of the Company and are principal shareholders, directors and officers of the Advisor. See "Election of Directors" below for information concerning holders who may be deemed to own beneficially more than 5% of the outstanding Shares.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The entire Board of Directors will be elected at the annual meeting of shareholders to serve until the next annual meeting of shareholders and until the election and qualification of their successors. In the event any nominee should not continue to be available for election, proxies may be voted for the election of a substitute nominee or the Board of Directors may elect to reduce the number of Directors. The Board of Directors has no reason to anticipate that any nominee will not be available for election. All of the nominees have been elected previously by the shareholders.

An affirmative vote by the holders of a majority of the Shares present in person or by proxy at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders is required for the election of each Director.

Set forth below is certain information about each current Director, each nominee for Director and the Shares held by all Directors and executive officers.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

The following discussion describes the organizational structure of the Company's subsidiaries and affiliates.

Transco Realty Trust ("Transco")

Transco is a publicly-held 44% shareholder of the Company. Mr. Wiener is the executive trustee and an officer of Transco and holds approximately 34% of Transco's stock. Mr. Rothstein serves as a trustee and an officer of Transco. Mr. Comita serves as a trustee of Transco.

Courtland Group, Inc. ("CGI")

CGI owns approximately 32% of Transco's stock and approximately 5% of the Company's common stock. Mr. Weiner is Chairman of the Board and a 65% shareholder of CGI. Mr. Rothstein serves as Director and president of CGI. CGI served as the Company's investment advisor until December 31, 1997.

HMG Advisory Corp. (the "Advisor")

The day-to-day operations of the Company are handled by the Advisor. Reference is made to "Approval of Advisory Agreement" below for further information about the duties and remuneration of the Advisor. The Advisor is majority-owned by Maurice Wiener, its Chairman and CEO.

Courtland Investments, Inc. ("CII")

The Company owns a 95% non-voting interest in CII. The other 5% (which represents 100% of the voting stock) is owned by a wholly-owned subsidiary of Transco. In May 1998, the Company and the Transco subsidiary entered into a written agreement in order to confirm and clarify the terms of their previous continuing arrangement with regard to the ongoing operations of CII, all of which provide the Company with complete authority over all decision making relating to the business, operation, and financing of CII consistent with its status as a real estate investment trust.

CII and its wholly-owned subsidiary own 100% of Grove Isle Club, Inc. Grove Isle Yacht Club Associates and Grove Isle Marina, Inc. CII also owns 15% of Grove Isle Associates, Ltd., and the other 85% is owned by the Company.

HMG-Fieber Associates ("Fieber")

The Company owns a 70% interest in Fieber and the other 30% is owned by NAF Associates ("NAF").

The following discussion describes all material transactions, receivables and payables involving related parties. The Company believes that all of the transactions described below were on terms as favorable to the Company as comparable transactions with unaffiliated third parties.

The Advisor

As of December 31, 2001 and 2000 the Advisor owed the Company approximately $191,000 and $155,000, respectively. Such sum bears interest at the prime rate plus 1% and is due on demand.

Edgar Filing: HMG COURTLAND PROPERTIES INC - Form PRER14A

Effective December 1, 1999, the Advisor began leasing its executive offices from CII pursuant to a lease agreement. This lease agreement is at the going market rate for similar property and calls for base rent of $48,000 per year payable in equal monthly installments. Additionally, the Advisor is responsible for all property insurance, utilities, maintenance and security expenses relating to the leased premises. The lease term is five years.

CGI

As of December 31, 2001 and 2000, CGI owed the Company $300,000 and $278,000, respectively. Such sums bear interest at the prime rate plus 1% and are due on demand.

CII - T.G.I.F. Texas, Inc.

CII owns approximately 49% of the outstanding shares of T.G.I.F. Texas, Inc. ("T.G.I.F."). Mr. Wiener is a director and officer of T.G.I.F. and owns, directly and indirectly, approximately 18% of the outstanding shares of T.G.I.F. As of December 31, 2001 and 2000, T.G.I.F. had amounts due from Mr. Wiener in the amount of approximately $718,000 and $672,000, respectively. These amounts are due on demand and bear interest at the prime rate. Also, T.G.I.F. owns 10,000 shares of the Company. The Advisor receives a management fee of $18,000 per year from T.G.I.F.

As of December 31, 2001 and 2000 CII owed approximately of $3.7 million and $3.6 million, respectively to T.G.I.F. All advances between CII and T.G.I.F. are due on demand and bear interest at the prime rate plus 1%.

CII - Grove Isle

In 1986, CII acquired from the Company the rights to develop the marina at Grove Isle for a promissory note of $620,000 payable at an annual rate equal to the prime rate. The principal matures on January 2, 2006. Interest payments are due each January 2. Because the Company consolidates CII, the note payable and related interest income are eliminated in consolidation.

The Company holds a demand note due from CII bearing interest at the prime rate plus 1% with an outstanding balance of $2,508,000 and $1,260,000 as of December 31, 2001 and 2000, respectively. During 2001 and 2000, advances from the Company to CII totaled $1,553,000 and $3,993,000, respectively. Repayments from CII to the Company during 2001 and 2000 were $400,000 and $4,593,000, respectively. Accrued and unpaid interest is capitalized and included in advances. Because CII is a 95%-owned consolidated subsidiary of the Company, the note payable and related interest are eliminated in consolidation.

The Company holds a demand note from Grove Isle Yacht Club Associates (GIYCA, a wholly-owned subsidiary of CII) bearing interest at the prime rate plus 2% with an outstanding balance as of December 31, 2001 and 2000, respectively, of approximately $243,000 and $1,084,000. During 2001 and 2000 advances from the Company to GIYCA totaled $2,000 and $40,000 respectively. Repayments from GIYCA to the Company during 2001 and 2000 were $897,000 and $250,000, respectively. Accrued and unpaid interest is capitalized and included in advances. Because GIYCA is a wholly-owned subsidiary of CII, the note payable and related interest are eliminated in consolidation.

Transco - South Bayshore Associates ("SBA")

SBA is a joint venture in which Transco and the Company hold interests of 25% and 75%, respectively. The major asset of SBA is a demand note from Transco, bearing interest at the prime rate, with an outstanding balance of approximately $453,000 in principal and interest as of December 31, 2001 compared to a balance of $452,000 as of December 31, 2000.

The Company holds a demand note from SBA bearing interest at the prime rate plus 1% with an outstanding balance as of December 31, 2001 of approximately $1,100,000, in principal and accrued interest, compared to a balance of $1,000,000, in principal and accrued interest, as of December 31, 2000. No payments were made in 2001 and 2000, and accrued and unpaid interest was not capitalized. Because the Company consolidates SBA, the note payable and related interest income are eliminated in consolidation.

Exercised Stock Options and Related Promissory Notes

On August 24, 2000, certain officers and directors of the Company exercised all of their stock options and purchased a total of 70,000 shares of the Company's common stock for $358,750. The company received $70,000 in cash and $288,750 in promissory notes for the balance. These promissory notes bear interest at 6.18% per annum payable quarterly in arrears on the first day of January, April, July and October. The outstanding principal is due on August 23, 2005 and the notes are collateralized by the stock.

APPROVAL OF AMENDMENT AND RENEWAL OF THE ADVISORY AGREEMENT

The Advisory Agreement. At the 2001 annual meeting of shareholders, the advisory agreement (the "Advisory Agreement") between the Company and HMG Advisory Corp. (the "Advisor") was renewed for a one-year term expiring on December 31, 2002. On March 22, 2002, the Board of Directors approved, subject to shareholder approval, the amendment and renewal of the Advisory Agreement between the Company and the Advisor for a term commencing January 1, 2003, and expiring December 31, 2003.

The sole amendment to the Advisory Agreement that is being proposed at the Annual Meeting is the increase in the remuneration of the Advisor to increase the Advisor's current regular compensation monthly fee from $55,000 to $75,000, or $660,000 to $900,000 annually. All other terms of the existing Advisory Agreement will remain the same. The increase in remuneration of the Advisor is being proposed by the Board after taking into account the increased costs of the Advisor in managing the affairs of the Company, the economic factors impacting the real estate industry and competitive conditions in today's market place. The amendment and renewal was approved unanimously by the Directors unaffiliated with the Advisor.

Under the terms of the Advisory Agreement, the amendment and renewal must be approved by the holders of a majority of the Shares. If the shareholders approve the Advisory Agreement, it will be amended and renewed for a one-year term.

The Advisor is majority owned by Mr. Wiener with the remaining shares owned by certain officers, including Mr. Rothstein. The officers and directors of the Advisor are as follows: Maurice Wiener, Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive officer; Lawrence I. Rothstein, President, Treasurer, Secretary and Director; Carlos Camarotti, Vice President - Finance and Assistant Secretary; and Bernard Lerner, Vice President.

Edgar Filing: HMG COURTLAND PROPERTIES INC - Form PRER14A

The following description of the Advisory Agreement contains a summary of its material terms.

General Provisions. The Advisory Agreement is not assignable without the consent of the unaffiliated Directors of the Company and the Advisor. The Advisory Agreement provides that officers, directors, employees and agents of the Advisor or of its affiliates may serve as Directors, officers or agents of the Company.

Duties of Advisor. The Advisor in performing its duties under the Advisory Agreement is at all times subject to the supervision of the Directors of the Company and has only such authority as the Directors delegate to it as their agent. The Advisor counsels and presents to the Company investments consistent with the objectives of the Company and performs such research and investigation as the Directors may request in connection with the policy decisions as to the type and nature of investments to be made by the Company. Such functions include evaluation of the desirability of acquisition, retention and disposition of specific Company assets. The Advisor also is responsible for the day-to-day investment operations of the Company and conducts relations with mortgage loan brokers, originators and servicers, and determines whether investments offered to the Company meet the requirements of the Company. The Advisor provides executive and administrative personnel, office space and services required in rendering such services to the Company. To the extent required to perform its duties under the Agreement, the Advisor may deposit into and disburse from bank accounts opened in its own name any money on behalf of the Company under such terms and conditions as the Company may approve.

Allocation of Expenses. Under the Advisory Agreement, the Advisor pays: all salary and employment expenses of its own personnel and of the officers and employees of the Company who are affiliates of the Advisor; all of the administrative, rent and other office expenses (except those relating to a separate office, if any, maintained by the Company) relating to its services as Advisor; and travel (to the extent not paid by any party other than the Company or the Advisor) and advertising expenses incurred in seeking investments for the Company.

The Company is required to pay all expenses of the Company not assumed by the Advisor, including, without limitation, the following: (a) the cost of borrowed money; (b) taxes on income, real property and all other taxes applicable to the Company; (c) legal, accounting, underwriting, brokerage, transfer agent's, registrar's, indenture trustee's, listing, registration and other fees, printing, engraving, and other expenses and taxes incurred in connection with the issuance, distribution, transfer, registration and stock exchange listing of the Company's securities; (d) fees and expenses of advisors and independent contractors, consultants, managers and other agents employed directly by the Company; (e) expenses connected with the acquisition, disposition or ownership of mortgages or real property or other investment assets, including, to the extent not paid by any party other than the Company or the Advisor, but not limited to, costs of foreclosure, costs of appraisal, legal fees and other expenses for professional services, maintenance, repairs and improvement of property, and brokerage and sales commissions, and expenses of maintaining and managing real property equity interests; (f) the expenses of organizing or terminating the Company; (g) all insurance costs (including the cost of Directors' liability insurance) incurred in connection with the protection of the Company's property as required by the Directors; (h) expenses connected with payment of dividends or interest or distributions in cash or any other form made or caused to be made by the Directors to holders of securities of the Company, including a dividend reinvestment plan, if any; (i) all expenses connected with communications to holders of securities of the Company and the other bookkeeping and clerical work necessary in maintaining relations with holders of securities, including the cost of printing and mailing checks, certificates for securities and proxy solicitation materials and reports to holders of the Company's securities; (j) to the extent not paid by borrowers from the Company, the expenses of administering, processing and servicing mortgage, development, construction and other loans; (k) the cost of any accounting, statistical, or bookkeeping equipment necessary for the maintenance of the books and records of the Company; (l) general legal, accounting and auditing fees and expenses; (in) salaries and other employment expenses of the personnel employed by the Company who are not affiliates of the Advisor, fees and expenses incurred by the Directors, officers and employees in attending Directors' meetings, and fees and travel and other expenses incurred by the Directors and officers and employees of the Company who are not affiliates of the Advisor.

Expenses relating to the grant of options to all officers and employees of the Company under a plan approved by the shareholders of the Company are borne by the Company.

Remuneration of the Advisor. For services rendered under the current advisory agreement, the Advisor is entitled to receive as regular compensation a monthly fee equal to the sum of (a) $55,000 (equivalent to $660,000 per year) and (b) 20% of the amount of any unrefunded commitment fees received by the Company with respect to mortgage loans and other commitments which the Company was not required to fund and which expired within the next preceding calendar month. In 2001 and 2000, the Advisor's annual regular compensation amounted to $660,000.

If the shareholders approve the amendment and renewal of the Advisory Agreements, the Advisor's regular compensation will be increased to $75,000 per month, or $900,000 per year, and will continue to receive the other additional fee of 20% of the amount of any unrefunded commitment fees received by the Company as outlined above. The Advisor will also continue to receive the incentive compensation outlined below.

The Advisory Agreement also provides that the Advisor shall receive incentive compensation for each fiscal year of the Company equal to the sum of (a) 10% of the realized capital gains (net of accumulated net realized capital losses) and extraordinary nonrecurring items of income of the Company for such year, and (b) 10% of the amount, if any, by which Net Profits of the Company exceed 8% per annum of the Average Net Worth of the Company. "Net Profits" is defined as the gross earned income of the Company for such period (exclusive of gains and losses from the disposition of assets), minus all expenses other than non-cash charges for depreciation, depletion and amortization and the incentive compensation payable to the Advisor, and minus all amounts expended for mortgage amortization on long-term mortgage indebtedness, excluding extraordinary and balloon payments. "Average Net Worth" is defined as the average of the amount in the shareholders' equity accounts on the books of the Company, plus the accumulated non-cash reserves for depreciation, depletion and amortization shown on the books of the Company, determined at the close of the last day of each month for the computation period.

If and to the extent that the Company requests the Advisor, or any of its directors, officers, or employees, to render services for the Company, other than those required to be rendered by the Advisor under the Agreement, such additional services are to be compensated separately on terms to be agreed upon between such party and the Company from time to time, which terms must be fair and reasonable and at least as favorable to the Company as similar arrangements for comparable transactions of which the Company is aware with organizations unaffiliated with the Advisor. The Advisor received $30,000 in 2000 and 2001 for managing certain of the Company's affiliates.

Set forth below is the aggregate compensation paid to the Advisor during the two fiscal years ended December 31, 2000 and 2001.

(1) If the amended Advisory Agreement had been in effect during the years 2001 and 2002, the Advisor's regular compensation would have amounted to $900,000 in each year.

Brokerage Fees Paid the Advisor. Under the Advisory Agreement, the Advisor and its affiliates are prohibited from receiving from the Company any brokerage or similar fees for the placement of mortgages or other investments with the Company. However, the Advisor and its affiliates can receive normal brokerage commissions from borrowers in connection with transactions involving the Company, provided that such commissions are fully disclosed to all Directors of the Company and the Directors approve of the transaction and that such commissions (which to the extent paid by the borrower and retained by the Advisor or its affiliates may reduce the yield to the Company) are fair and reasonable and in accord with the prevailing rates in the locality in which the transaction is consummated for the type of transaction involved. The Advisor and its affiliates may, subject to the same terms and conditions, receive normal brokerage commissions from sellers, buyers, lessees and other parties with whom the Company engages in transactions.

HMG/COURTLAND PROPERTIES, INC.
AUDIT COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Edgar Filing: HMG COURTLAND PROPERTIES INC - Form PRER14A

CHARTER

I. PURPOSE

The audit committee (the "Audit Committee") of the board of directors (the "Board") of HMG/Courtland Properties, Inc. (the "Corporation") shall provide assistance to the Board in fulfilling its responsibility to stockholders, potential investors and others for the oversight of the quality and integrity of the accounting, auditing and reporting practices of the Corporation. The Audit Committee's primary duties and responsibilities are to:

- o Serve as an independent and objective party to monitor the Corporation's financial reporting process and internal control system.
- o Review and appraise the audit efforts of the Corporation's independent accountants.
- o Maintain free and open communication with and among the independent accountants, financial and senior management of the Corporation and the Board.

In discharging this oversight role, the Audit Committee is empowered to investigate any matter brought to its attention, with full power to retain outside counsel or other experts for this purpose. The Audit Committee will primarily fulfill these responsibilities by carrying out the activities enumerated in Section IV of this Charter.

While the Audit Committee has the responsibilities and powers set forth in this Charter, it is not the duty of the Audit Committee to plan or conduct audits or to determine that the Corporation's financial statements are complete and accurate and are in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. This is the responsibility of management and the independent accountants. Nor is it the duty of the Audit Committee to conduct investigations, to resolve disagreements, if any, between management and the independent accountants or to assure compliance with laws and regulations and the Corporation's Ethical Code of Conduct.

II. COMPOSITION

The Audit Committee shall be comprised of two or more directors as determined by the Board, each of whom shall be independent directors. An independent director is a person other than an officer or employee of the Corporation or its subsidiaries or any other individual having a relationship which, in the opinion of the Board, would not interfere with the exercise of independent judgment in carrying out the responsibilities of a director. The following persons shall not be considered independent:

- (a) a director who is employed by the Corporation or any of its affiliates for the current year or any of the past three years;
- (b) a director who accepts any compensation from the Corporation or any of its affiliates in excess of $60,000 during the previous fiscal year, other than compensation for board services, benefits under a tax-qualified retirement plan, or non-discretionary compensation;

Edgar Filing: HMG COURTLAND PROPERTIES INC - Form PRER14A

- (c) a director who is a member of the immediate family of an individual who is, or has been in any of the past three years, employed by the Corporation or any of its affiliates as an executive officer. Immediate family includes a person's spouse, parents, children, siblings, mother-in-law, father-in-law, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, and anyone who resides in such person's home;
- (d) a director who is a partner in, or a controlling shareholder or an executive officer of, any for-profit business organization to which the Corporation made, or from which the Corporation received, payments (other than those arising solely from investments in the Corporation's securities) that exceed 5% of the Corporation's or business organization's consolidated gross revenues for that year, or $200,000, whichever is more, in any of the past three years;
- (e) a director who is employed as an executive of another entity where any of the Corporation's executives serve on that entity's compensation committee.

All members of the Audit Committee shall be able to read and understand fundamental financial statements, including a company's balance sheet, income statement, and cash flow statement or will become able to do so within a reasonable period of time after his or her appointment to the Audit Committee. Additionally, at least one member of the Audit Committee must have past employment experience in finance or accounting, requisite professional certification in accounting, or any other comparable experience or background which results in the individual's financial sophistication, including being or having been a chief executive officer, chief financial officer or other senior officer with financial oversight responsibilities. The members of the Audit Committee shall be elected by the Board at the annual organizational meeting of the Board and shall serve until their successors shall be duly elected and qualified. Unless an Audit Committee Chairman is elected by the full Board, the members of the Audit Committee may designate a Chairman by majority vote of the Audit Committee.

III. MEETINGS

The Audit Committee shall meet at least one time annually, or more frequently as circumstances dictate. As part of its job to foster open communications, the Audit Committee should also meet at least annually with management and the independent accountants in separate executive sessions to discuss any matters that the Audit Committee or either of these groups believe should be discussed privately. In addition, the Audit Committee or at least its Chairman may, if deemed necessary, meet with the independent accountants and/or management quarterly to review the Corporation's financial statements consistent with Section IV below.

IV. RESPONSIBILITIES AND DUTIES

The Committee shall:

Based on the review and discussions in the preceding sentence, make a recommendation to the Board on inclusion of the audited financial statements in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for each fiscal year. The review shall also include any certification, report or opinion rendered by the independent accountants and discussions regarding the adequacy of disclosures and content, quality of earnings, reserves and accruals, suitability of accounting principles, reasonableness of estimates and other judgmental matters and such other matters that the Audit Committee deems appropriate.
3. Review and discuss, with management and the independent accountants, adjustments recorded as a result of the audit of the Corporation's financial statements for each fiscal year, and the effects of audit findings that were not adjusted in the underlying accounting records of the Corporation.

For this purpose, the Chairman of the Committee may act on behalf of the entire Committee.

B. Independent Accountants

7. Recommend to the Board on an annual basis the selection, retention or, where appropriate, replacement of the independent accountants. In doing so, the Audit Committee shall determine the independence of the independent accountants by: (i) reviewing and considering the written disclosures and the letter from the independent accountants required by Independence Standards Board No. 1, as it may be modified or supplemented, that they are independent; (ii) actively engaging in a discussion with the independent accountants with respect to any disclosed relationships or services that may impact the objectivity and independence of the independent accountants; and (iii) taking, or recommending that the Board take, appropriate action to oversee the independence of the independent accountants. The independent accountants shall have ultimate accountability to the Board and the Audit Committee, as representatives of the stockholders of the Corporation. The Audit Committee shall also consider the effectiveness of the independent accountants, and shall approve the auditing services to be rendered by the independent accountants and the fees or other compensation to be paid to the independent accountants related thereto.

8. Review the performance of the independent accountants and approve any proposed discharge of the independent accountants when circumstances warrant.
9. Review, with the independent accountants, the nature, timing and scope of the proposed audit of the Corporation's financial statements for each fiscal year and the procedures to be utilized in each such audit.
10. Review all reports issued by the independent accountants and provide the independent accountants with full access to the Audit Committee and the Board to report on any and all matters deemed appropriate by the independent accountants.
11. Periodically consult with the independent accountants outside the presence of management regarding internal controls and the completeness and accuracy of the Corporation's annual financial statements.

19. Review any significant disagreement among management and the independent accountants in connection with the preparation of the financial statements.
