CB BANCSHARES CORRECTS
MISSTATEMENTS MADE BY CPF AND ITS LEGAL COUNSEL

HONOLULU, HAWAII. May 29, 2003 - CB Bancshares, Inc. (NASDAQ: CBBI), parent company of City Bank, today sent the following letter to Clinton Arnoldus, Central Pacific Financial Corp.'s (NYSE: CPF) ("CPF") chairman of the board, president and chief executive officer, to address misstatements made by CPF and its legal counsel regarding CB Bancshares' shareholder rights plan:

Mr. Clinton L. Arnoldus
Chairman of the Board, President and Chief Executive Officer
Central Pacific Financial Corp.
220 South King Street
Honolulu, HI 96813

Dear Mr. Arnoldus:

Certain statements attributed to Central Pacific Financial Corp. ("Central Pacific") and its legal counsel that appeared today in Hawaii's local press regarding our shareholder rights plan (the "Rights Plan") are simply wrong and reflect a fundamental misunderstanding of the operation of the Rights Plan. We have discussed these statements with our counsel and would like to point out the following:

- o You should be advised that under the terms of the Rights Plan, once the rights are distributed, neither Central Pacific nor CB Bancshares' Board of Directors has the power to redeem them, and Central Pacific would be permanently unable to complete a transaction with CB Bancshares without substantially diluting Central Pacific and the CB Bancshares shareholder group who executed agency designations.
- o In fact, if the rights are distributed and Central Pacific thereafter completes its exchange offer, all holders of rights other than Central Pacific and its shareholder group would have the irrevocable right to acquire shares of CB Bancshares at one-half the market price, which would result in dilution of the ownership of Central Pacific and its shareholder group from approximately 27% of CB Bancshares' outstanding shares to approximately 8%.

- o Your counsel also seems to believe that our Board has acted to amend the Rights Plan in order to create another obstacle to your hostile takeover attempt. To the contrary, the Rights Plan was amended in order to prevent a rights distribution that otherwise would have occurred under the existing terms of the plan as a result of Central Pacific's ill-advised decision to conduct a non-public solicitation for shareholder authorizations above the 20% threshold.

We strongly urge your counsel to immediately conduct a more detailed review of the Rights Plan and consider the liability of your company and its directors to the CB Bancshares shareholders who executed the authorizations, as a rights distribution could have onerous consequences for both Central Pacific and that shareholder group.

Sincerely,

/s/ Ronald K. Migita
President and Chief Executive Officer
